In 2001 August 9 me and Anjel went to the moon when we got there it was August 11, 2001. We went to bed late we had a long day tomorrow. The next day we were playing rock paper scissors to see who would go on the moon I won I got ready 1, 2, 3. I jump out I bounce in the air. Then I said Thats one small step for women One giant leap for womenkind.

In the morning Anjel went out to fix the satellite dish. When she got in side we look out the window we saw Mars. We spotted a green thing on it it was an Alien.

Late at night Anjel was a sleep then I was reading charlotte's web then I feel a sleep, today was the day we went home after 8 months.
